Thomas H. Baldwin of 262 Washing-ton street was accidentally shot at the Warner Arms company on North Main street about 7,29 Friday morning by street about 7.20 Friday morning by an employe from Brooklyn who just lately moved to this city. The man was trying out a revolver of .32 call-bre and one of high power. He inserted a supposed dummy cartridge and pulled the trigger. The bullet entered Mr. Baldwin's body and he sank to the floor. Dr. E. J. Brophy was summoned and rendered all possible medical assistance and had the injured man taken to the Backus hospital. It was found that the bullet entered the lower part of the abdomen and had lower part of the abdomen and had passed through the body and the acci-dent is considered a serious one. Mr. Baldwin suffered from loss of blood and was in a very weakened condition when he was conveyed to the hospital. It was thought that if the bullet prove fatal, but otherwise Mr. John A. Morgan & Son win may recover. The hemorrhage was stopped and every care given to the man's comfort. At the hospital later in the day it was stated he was resting as 36.50 per ton.

The day it was stated he was resting as comfortably as could be expected.

The plant was temporarily shut down. Mr. Baldwin has the management of the arms company.

Additional Call For Troops Expected in December 1864-Counterfeit Money Plenty-Shetucket Bank Declared Three Per Cent. Dividend-Thames Bank Considering Becoming a National Bank.

Fifty years ago this week the people of Norwich were anticipating an additional call for troops for the front and a town meeting was held for the purpose of raising the men. The etockholders of the Thames bank were considering the advisibility of making the bank a national bank and counterfelt money was becoming such a nuisance that stringent measures were being taken against its circulation. The income tax was at issue and the Shetucket bank declared a three per cent dividend payable after the fifth of December 1864. Following are extracts from the Bulletin files of half a century ago.
